

Vision of the Department

- To give the students basic knowledge regarding home making and to become an expert Home Scientist.
- To enable the students to adopt to response to the demand of changing modern society.
- To create self awareness, self confidence to fight against the changing society.
- Equip students to become messengers of nutrition to the community at large.
- Impart skills and techniques to find placement in food in health sector.
- To create awareness which motivate the learners towards the conservation and management of their environment.
- Students of Home Science should be self employed.

Mission of the Department

- To provide the responsibility of acquiring accurate information and applying it in both personal and professional field.
- We provide training to the tribal students on various skills like tailoring, cooking, flower making for being self employed in future.
- We try to encourage the boys too to join in the course.
- To prepare intelligent contemporary discerning home makers/ professionals who are assets to the family and society.
- Empowering women with life coping skills and enhancing entrepreneurial skills and promoting economic independency.

Programme Objectives

- To encourage students to take an interest in home science and to increase the strength and the output in future employment.